

CRÉATION BAUMANN | HOSPITALITY

Hotel de Rome, Berlin, Germany

Architect
Tommaso Ziffer, Rome

Production year: 2006

Initial situation

A former bank building in Berlin Mitte was transformed into a hotel. The original character of the building was to be maintained. What resulted was a wonderful mix of contemporary chic and traditional splendor.

Solution

In lieu of standard products, the architect and interior decorator combined different designs and colours. Curtains, bedspreads, cushions, and sofas were selected with great care in order to emphasize the individual character of each and every hotel room.

Products
Lord, Ponte
